

“Desire for Normalcy”:

Name of the Republican candidate for President in 1920:
Name of the Republican candidate for Vice President in 1920:
Republican party platform in 1920: (What the party stood for):
Names of the Democratic opposition candidates:

Scandal* in the Harding Administration:

Describe the Teapot Dome Scandal: _____

Planning for PEACE

Five-Power Naval Treaty:
Kellogg-Briand Pact:
Relationship with Latin America:

CLASS DISCUSSION PREPARATION:

- A. How involved did Harding and Coolidge think the government should be in people’s lives?
(circle one) VERY INVOLVED NOT VERY INVOLVED
- B. How much do YOU think the government should be involved in people’s lives today? (Think: taxes, protecting the environment, regulating businesses, schools, product safety, etc.)
Answer and list your ideas (Bulleted) on the back of this paper to be prepared for discussion.